ALTERNATIVE NAMES:

Xuanzang Memorial

LOCATION:

Nalanda, Bihar

DISTRICT / REGION:

Nalanda

CATEGORY:

Historical Site / Cultural Attraction

OVERVIEW:

Xuanzang Memorial or Hiuen Tsang Memorial Hall in Nalanda marks the place where the renowned 7th-century Chinese Buddhist monk, scholar, traveler, and translator Xuanzang ended his long pilgrimage in pursuit of the true understanding of Buddhism.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION:

The memorial is dedicated to Hiuen Tsang, who is celebrated for his travelogue covering his journey to India between 629–645 CE, his massive efforts to bring over 657 Indian texts back to China, and his subsequent translations of these texts, which heavily influenced Chinese Buddhism. The construction of the Memorial was a symbol of cross-cultural friendship, initiated jointly in 1957 by the first Prime Minister of India and the first Premier of China.

HISTORICAL OR CULTURAL SIGNIFICANCE:

The site is of immense cultural and historical importance, commemorating Hiuen Tsang's contributions to Chinese Buddhism and Sino-Indian relations. It represents his quest for knowledge that led him to the great ancient university of Nalanda.
